Tarpley

1-WILLIAM TARPLEY¹, bought land in York County, Virginia, in 1635. He died prior to 1655. His wife was Mary. Mary married second, John Powell.

In York County: Benjamin Powell sells to Alexander Hall and William Tarpley plantation patented by his father, William Powell, Feb. 6th, 1635 (Page 37, W&M Quarterly, Vol. 24, July 1915-April 1916).

The division of land between Alexander Hall and William Powell and Mary, his wife, in behalf of John Tarpley, deceased and of Mary, the now wife of John Powell. Dated October 25, 1655 (pg. 42 of above volume).

Accomac County: Letter addressed to Mr. John Alexander, merchant, on September 18, 1663, by Edward Hickman, Samuel Calle and John Mannington leaves the impression that Mr. Tarpley, mentioned herein, is associated in business with Mr. Alexander. (pp. 130-, 131, W&M Quarterly, Vol. 25, July 1916-April 1917). 1/ 2/

Issue:

- 2 John Tarpley², m. Elizabeth Bruce. Lutz says, "According to a statement in a letter from R. E. Tarpley, of Atlanta, GA, James and John Tarpley were the sons of John Tarpley and Elizabeth Bruce, and John as the son of William and Mary Tarpley who bought land in York County in 1635. William died prior to 1655." Other researchers have claimed that James and John were the sons of William?

Second Generation

2-JOHN TARPLEY² (1), m. Elizabeth Bruce

Issue:

- 3 John Tarpley³, (1635-1663), res. North Farnham, VA, in 1690
4 James Tarpley, res. North Farnham, VA, in 1690

The Tarpleys were important planters on the North Shore of the Rappahannock, in the North Farnham Parish of Richmond Co., VA.

One member of the family often has schooling benefits. In the Tarpley family, for instance, John received some education, James did not.

There is evidence that the Tarpleys and Taylors were interested in religious matters. They were connected with the church at North Farnham, VA. John Tarpley left some 300 acres to the church at Farnham as a glebe. The church building in North Farnham was built 1734-1737. The records kept by the rector of that church provided the birth records of some of the ancestors. This church building was damaged in the Civil War. When the building was restored in the 1920s a bronze tablet, as a monument to these ancestors, was placed on the end of the front pew on the right side of the aisle as the rector views the audience. 3/

Another evidence of the families' interest in religious activities is found in the bell that was given to the Bruton Parish Church in Williamsburg by James Tarpley in 1761. The sweet-toned bell has been in use for nearly two centuries. Bruton Church is but a short distance from the gate of William and Mary College. The bell celebrated the repeal of the Stamp Act in 1766; on May 15, 1776, it celebrated the passing of the resolution by the House of Burgess to establish a State Constitution and Declaration of Rights and to instruct the Virginia Delegates in Congress to offer a resolution to declare the United Colonies free and independent states; in 1783 it celebrated the ratification of the Treaty of Peace between the United States and Great Britain. 4/

Third Generation

3-JOHN TARPLEY³ (2), b. about 1625 in Yorkshire, England, arrived in Charles City, VA, about 1650. He settled in Old Rappahannock County (later Richmond County), Virginia. He married Mary _____ in 1652; died about 1663 in Farnham Parish, Old Rappahannock Co., VA. His widow married in 1664 to Captain William Barber, Justice of Richmond County, in 1690. 5/ 6/

John Tarpley was a man of public interest, particularly in the affairs of county and state.

Issue:

5 James Tarpley⁴, 1657-1713

6 John Tarpley, b. 1660; m. Ann Glascock, Glasscock. The Research Department, Colonial Williamsburg, VA., shows Col. John Tarpley, d. 1736, m. Anne Glascock as the son of James Tarpley who emigrated to Rappahannock & Northumberland Co., in 1664.

Children from her second marriage:

7 William Barber (mentioned in estate papers)

8 Charles Barber (mentioned in estate papers)

4-JAMES TARPLEY³ (2), 1657-1713; m. 1687, Mary Biddecombe, Biddlecombe, or Mary Peachy(ey). 7/

Mary Peachy's will (Richmond Co. Records --- Will Book 3, p. 151, 52) names granddaughters, Mary and Elizabeth Tarpley, and daughter, Mary Tarpley. Samuel Peachys' will names god-daughter, eldest daughter of James Tarpley. Mary (Biddicomb) Tarpley, daughter of James Biddicomb, married Samuel Peachy.

James was a Captain in the Virginia Militia of Officers 1698.

The Lutz data on Tarpley is contradictory in itself in regards to the wife of James Tarpley referring to her as Mary Biddecomb(e) on page 44 and then attempting to prove she was Mary Peachy(ey) on page 171.

Mary Biddecomb(e) (1669-1718) was the daughter of James and Mary (Brassier) Biddecombe. She was born ca. 1669 in Setlingbourne Parish, Old Rappahannock Co., VA, and died 16 Dec. 1718, Richmond Co., VA.

There is evidence that James Tarpley married Mary Peachy(ey), d/o Col. Samuel Peachy of England and Virginia, who married, first, Elizabeth _____ and married, second, Mary _____. Mary Peachys' (widow of Samuel Peachy), will dated 12 Sept 1713, names her daughter, Mary Tarpley, and her granddaughters, Mary and Elizabeth Tarpley. Mr. Lutz says, "It appears from these facts that Samuel and Mary Peachy were the parents of Mary Tarpley, wife of James Tarpley."

Samuel Peachy was the son of Robert Peachy (Baron Celsey), England. More can be found about Peachys in Some Prominent Virginia Families, Volume 2, pp. 109-112. 8/

Colonial Williamsburg, Dept. of Research and Records, writes (1934), "The James Tarpley (merchant of Williamsburg) was the son of John Tarpley of Williamsburg and Elizabeth Ripping, daughter of Captain Edward Ripping of York Co., VA. He was the grandson of Col. John Tarpley of Richmond Co., VA, and Ann Glasscock, his wife. He had a sister, Elizabeth, and two brothers, Edward Ripping Tarpley and Quintus or Quinby Tarpley."

In 1755, James Tarpley, merchant, was in partnership under the name of "Tarpley and Tate." Later, in 1759 James Tarpley purchased part of a lot from Henry Wetherburn. He built a store there and managed it until his death in 1764. In 1762 Tarpley went into partnership with John Thompson who continued on the site after Tarpleys' death. He owned several lots in Williamsburg. In 1766 the building was advertised for sale. If visiting Williamsburg, your compiler recommends you visit the Tarpley Store and the Bruton Parish Church. Thelma and I were to candlelight services at the church, Christmas week, a few years ago. This is the James Tarpley that gave the bell to the Bruton Parish Church in 1761. The bell is still in use. 14/

Taylor

John Taylor of Shaddockhurst, Kent County, England, married Thomasine _____. They had four sons, whose records are as follows:

William Taylor, b. 4 Jan. 1571, eldest son and heir, married Mary Taylor, a cousin, daughter of Richard Taylor of Cranbrook, Kent County, England, and had, John, eldest son and heir, who married Ann Brockhull and had three sons, Brockhull, Thomas, and Nathaniel. Nathaniel married _____ Bridges and had John, eldest son and heir, and seventeen other children. This son, John Taylor, became owner of Bifrons.

John Taylor, second son of John Taylor of Shaddowhurst, married Elizabeth Chute of Bethesden, Kent County, and had sons, George and Matthew. 1/ 2/

Matthew Taylor, third son of John Taylor of Shaddowhurst, married Margaret Freeland of Greatham, Hants County, and had son, Richard.

Richard Taylor, fourth son of John Taylor of Shaddowhurst, is said to be the ancestor of four brothers, William, James (of Caroline Co., VA., and the ancestor of Zachary Taylor), John, and Richard, who (all) came to Virginia in 1650. Later Rappahannock, Westmoreland, and Middlesex Counties were cut off from Northumberland. In 1692, Rappahannock County was divided into Richmond and Essex Counties.

Who were the descendants of these four brothers?

Much of the Taylor material is from the splendid Taylor family records and research of Dr. Henry C. Taylor and Joseph B. Lutz, for which your compiler is grateful. Most of those reports ended in 1939 and your compiler made no effort to bring the Taylor family down-to-date. Rather, to only make the Evertson/Taylor connection and to include what is known about Mary Taylor Evertson's close kin.

Dr. Henry C. Taylor, Chicago, IL, writing on 27 Feb. 1935, states: "I am disposed to believe that four brothers came together from England about 1650, and that one of them, Richard, became the head of our family, and another became the head of the family later centered in Orange County and known as the James Taylor family.

Further, there were three branches of the Taylor family in Richmond

County in the 17th century and later the one in the Farnham area (Richard) was reported. The one further west, I know practically nothing about. The one close to the county seat of Warsaw, seems to have been the one of greatest wealth and who changed his name to Tayloe, perhaps more or less by accident, but later it took an act of the House of Burgesses to secure the transmission by inheritance of the William Taylor estate to the Tayloe family. It is possible that these three Taylors in Richmond County, and the one who went to Orange Co., make up the four brothers in question."

Dr. Taylor concludes: "Ultimate success in research of this kind requires that we accept only as working hypotheses the various theories we may have with regard to origins and continue to search for documentary evidence and count nothing as final until it is well documented."

The Evertson descendants do go back to Richard Taylor of Virginia thus:

1-RICHARD TAYLOR¹, will was drawn 22 Mar. 1678; proved May 1679 (Will Book 2 (1677-1682). p. 131) Old Rappahannock (now Essex Co.) Virginia. His wife's name was Sarah. 3/

Dr. Henry C. Taylor wrote concerning the family of Richard and Sarah Taylor of Richmond County, "The first documentary evidence of the existence and activities of Richard Taylor of North Farnham Parish, Richmond Co., VA, as yet discovered, is a contract of sale of land on the 1st day of May, 1671, and recorded at Tappahannock in Rappahannock County, which included the present Essex County on the north side of the river. In the contract, John Sugget and Sarah Sugget sold to Richard Taylor, 200 acres of land for and in consideration of the sum of 3,500 pounds of merchantable tobacco. The land is described as "one parcel of land containing 200 acres situated and lying and being on the north side of (the) Rappahannock (river), abutting upon the land of Edward Lewis, the said 200 acres being the (moyty?) of 400 acres of land sold by John Williams and Mary, his wife, unto the said John Suckett, the said 400 acres being part of a dividend of land of 800 acres granted to John Williams by patt. bearing the date 12-8-1662, the other 400 acres of land being sold by the said John unto the said Edw. Lewis of same county.

"Richard Taylor's will which was signed on 22nd March, 1679, and executed on the 7th day of May of the same year, he gave his plantation of 200 acres to his sons, Richard and Simon and gave Richard the option when he came of age to sell his interest to Simon for 5,000 pounds of tobacco. It is further provided that in case Richard did not choose to sell his interest in the farm to Simon, the land was to be equally divided and lots cast by both of them for their shares. The will provides for the disposition of 32 head of cattle and their increase and for two mares and one gelding. The will mentions "my daughter, Constance," to whom seven head of cattle, five females and two steers, were given to "my loving wife, Sarah" one gelding and twenty-three head of cattle were given. Sarah, his wife, was made sole executrix and residual legatee but he mentions that his wife was in a very weak condition and asked that his neighbors, John English, Peter Ellis and Edward Friar take turns one week at a time in giving the children advice "and they be kept upon the plantation with my servant, and in case my wife should die, then I appoint and ordain my loving friend, Collo. Leroy

Griffin, sole executor of this my last will and testament." 4/

Second Generation

2-RICHARD TAYLOR² (1), ca. 1667. On the 23rd of March 1687/8, in Rappahannock Co., court, Richard Taylor, son of Richard Taylor, was declared free from any further service to Roderick Jones, that Richard Taylor was of full age. Further he was given the right to work upon and make use of a part of the land that his father had bequeathed to him. This was then nine years from the death of Richard, the first, to the time when the son, Richard, came of age. The mother had obviously died and Richard had evidently been apprenticed or bound out to Roderick Jones.

3-SIMON TAYLOR² (1), b. ca. 1669. His will was drawn 18 Aug. 1728; proved 5 Feb. 1729, Richmond Co., VA (Will Book 5, p. 126). Simon Taylor died 10 Jan. 1729; m. Elizabeth Lewis, b. 3 Mar. 1674, daughter of Edward and Mary Lewis. Mentioned in Deed book 3 page 179, 180, Richmond Co., VA. Elizabeth died 10 Mar. 1727. See Lewis Nos. 5, 7, 11-16. 5/

Simon apparently not only acquired the farm of his father's but he also married Elizabeth, d/o Edward Lewis, who owned the adjacent 400 acres of land and it is a matter of record that he and Elizabeth ultimately shared in the settlement of the Lewis estate.

Simon Taylor and Elizabeth Lewis probably married in 1691 in Elizabeth's 18th year and after Simon was 21. The birth records of Farnham Parish record the name of but one child of Simon and Elizabeth Taylor and that was Sarah, b. 28 Sept. 1692, but Simon's will mentions, also John, William, Thomas, Septimus, and George as well as Sarah. The will did not mention a Richard or a Simon, but the Farnham Parish records give the death of a Richard Taylor as of 23 Jan. 1716 and a Simon Taylor as of 2 Feb. 1718. There is no record of any court action at the death of these persons, or settlement of estate (Mr. Warner infers that), they died minors, or at least without heirs. Further, the last son born to them was named Septimus and starting with Sarah and following through, two additional names are required to make Septimus the seventh in the family.

Simon Taylor was administrator of the estate of John Tarpley, dece'd (sic), and bond with John Hite as security, 6 March 1753. 6/
Children are not in order.

Issue:

- 5 John Taylor³, b. 1703; m. Hannah Harrison
- 6 William Taylor, b. 1708, m. Elizabeth Henderson
- 7 Septimus Taylor, b. 1710, m. Bridget
- 8 George Taylor, b. 1720; d. 25 Oct. 1749
- 9 Sarah Anne Taylor, b. 28 Sept. 1692; m. Thomas Jasper
- 10 Thomas Taylor, d. 9 Jan. 1730, n.i. He left personal property to Anne Jasper, d/o Thomas and Sarah Jasper and the balance of estate to his brothers, John, William, Septimus, and George.

4-CONSTANCE TAYLOR² (1) m. William Glen, Glin, Glue, Glew, Glow? The name is spelled many ways in different documents, but the Tappahannock genealogist, T. H. Warner, spells it Glen. Apparently both William Glen and his wife, Constance, passed away before 1704. On that date John Glen chose Simon Taylor of Richmond Co. as his guardian.

Issue:

- 11 John Glen³. John Glen made a will 16 May 1721 giving to George Taylor, son of Simon Taylor, 100 acres of land and gives to his sisters part of his land to be divided between them. He also gave a horse to John Taylor, son of Simon. Evidently died without issue.

Third Generation

5-JOHN TAYLOR³ (3), b. 1703; d. 2 Feb 1740; m. 1726, Hannah Harrison.

Issue:

- 14 Simon Taylor⁴, b. 11 Mar. 1728. He went over into Shenandoah Valley. He worked as a carpenter for Yost Hite and married Anna Marie Hite, g-dau. of Yost Hite of Winchester, and settled north of Springfield on the south branch of the Potomac in Hampshire Co., now WV. In 1767, Simon seemed to have been an outstanding man in his part of Hampshire Co. In the VA. census of 1782-1784, the word "gent" followed his name and his house is still a landmark on the south branch of the Potomac, north of Springfield, and was occupied by his descendants by the name of Washington in 1933.
- 15 Elizabeth Taylor, b. 26 Sept. 1731. It is believed that Elizabeth married James Tarpley. They lived in Hampshire Co., VA-WV for a time and moved into Fleming Co., KY, and died without issue. They were closely associated in Hampshire Co., with William Dudley, son-in-law of Simon, and Anna Maria Hite Taylor. Members of the Dudley family were found in great numbers in Flemingsburg in 1927.
- 16 Harrison Taylor, b. 14 Aug. 1735; d. Ohio Co., KY, 22 Nov. 1811. He also went west and for a time ran a mill in Frederick Co., VA. The story of his life and descendants is found in "Ohio County in the Olden Days" by Harrison D. Taylor.

Harrison Taylor, with his wife and children, emigrated to Ohio County (Hartford), Kentucky. Later Thomas A. Taylor, son of Harrison Taylor II, made his way to IN, and still later to Vermilion Co., IL., near Catlin. This is the Taylor family that settled near Catlin.

His will was drawn 22 Oct. 1780; proved 11 May 1784 (Will Book 2, p. 96, Hampshire Co., VA (now WV). The will shows the following children: George, William, John, and Nancy. Tarpley Taylor married Lidia, Sibia, Abbia _____. 8/

Who was Libia Taylor? Simon Taylor, Tarpley's cousin, married over in Frederick County, a gr-dau. of Yost Hite of Winchester in the Shenandoah Valley. Tarpley may have likewise gone over the mountains as a single man. He was 29 years 9 months and 1 day old when his first son was born. There is a chance, therefore, that he too may have married west of the Blue Ridge.

51-WILLIAM TAYLOR⁵ (26), b. 11 Mar. 1773, probably Richmond Co., VA, brought up in Hampshire Co., VA, emigrated with three brothers to Fleming Co., KY, before 1800. Moved to Warren Co., IN, near the Illinois state line ca. 1825. William Taylor died 22 Dec. 1840. Will proved Warren Co., IN. He married 6 Dec. 1796, Massey Young, b. 17 Dec. 1780; d. 18 Feb. 1867. William Taylor's family Bible, from which this data was taken by Mr. Lutz, is in the possession of George A. Beck of Covington, IN.

Mr. Lutz remarks, "It is strange that of the fourteen children of William Taylor, we seem to be unable to get definite data on but four: George (my grandfather), Aaron, Holly and Massey Amanda. Of course, two or three died early and had no families. Nancy A., and James D. are reported to have gone to Missouri, but we have no data on them."

Massey Taylor Lutz, dictated in 1915, after she was seventy-five years old the following statement which refers to this subject. She says, "One of these Virginia descendants, William Taylor, was my grandfather. Later he moved to Kentucky and married but within a year his wife died. Again he married, this time a young girl of sixteen named Massey Young. She lived to be eighty-eight and was able to work in her garden to the day of her death. She had a brother who was a Methodist Minister.

"William Taylor was born 11 Mar. 1773; married (1st) 11 Mar. 1795, when he was 22; death of wife, 1 Jan. 1796; m./2 Massey Young, 1 Jan. 1797, birth of first child 10 Nov. 1797. Such a set of facts would verify my mother's statement that William Taylor was married twice, but not determine the date when he left Virginia."

52-JOHN C. TAYLOR⁵ (26), b. 18 Jan. 1775; d. 16 Sept. 1838; m. 30 Mar. 1798, Rachel Cole, b. 12 Nov. 1782, d. 27 July 1838, d/o Joseph Cole, b. 26 Jan. 1753, d. 14 Sept. 1823. There are land records Fleming Co., KY, Jos. Cole 29 June 1798 and Geo. Taylor 9 July 1798, also in Fleming Co. records "Thomas Davis was apprenticed to Joseph Cole to teach him house carpentry for 15 years -- 11 Sept. 1798." 9/

John Clark Taylor, along with his brothers moved about 1830 from Fleming Co., KY, to Warren Co., IN. The names and dates of the children, etc., were furnished by Bertha Meeks Stover, g-dau. of George M. Taylor and were taken from the family bible of John Clark Taylor and wf., Rachel (Cole).

From Warren Co., IN, Historical Atlas the following, "The first settlement in Kent Twp., was that of Nathaniel Butterfield in the year 1823. The farm owned by Mr. Butterfield...is noted as the camping ground of General Harrison in his march against the Indians which resulted in the Battle of Tippecanoe, near the city of Lafayette. On his return from the battle, Harrison's forces again camped upon this farm.... In 1827-28 Amos Clark, John Taylor, and William Taylor, his brother, came to the township." 10/

Since John Clark Taylor fought at the Battle of Tippecanoe, this probably verifies the family information that Capt. John Taylor passed through this country during his fighting days, liked the country very much and decided to return and settle here.

John Taylor was a Captain in the War of 1812. He was a member of the House of Representatives 1820-1828 from Fleming Co., KY.

There are records to indicate that the Gopher Hill Cemetery was taken out of John Clark Taylor's land and that the church connected with it was called "the Union Church," at least by 1877.

William Taylor moved from Pike Co., MO, to a farm near Winchester, IL, where he was a farmer and blacksmith. He moved to Iowa in the fall of 1839 and settled in Henry Co., about three miles north of Hillsboro on Big Cedar Creek. That spring while Mary Taylor was sick with typhoid fever, high water filled the house on the creek bank. The family was moved to a neighbor's (Stanley's) over the county line into Van Buren Co., where Mary died 22 July 1840. Mary Taylor was buried in Hillsboro Cem., where William was later buried.
